Indie/Americana/Psychedelic

Come Be Light features all original compositions and was painstakingly recorded over a two-year period leading up to its release in the summer of 2007. It illustrates the band's deft ability at melding A.M. radio confections with haunting psychedelia. A wholly original and addictive brew.

"Oddly charming pop gems. Well-crafted Americana ... lilting time signatures and rich warm vocals."

- Clane Hayward, Author, The Hypocrisy of Disco

"The feeling of floating through the night streets ... Listen, visit, experience and see what it stirs in you ... better yet, go see them play!"
