

Careen

Crash Couture

"There's such a strong, vital, vibrant music scene here in Portland, and Careen is definitely at the top of the list of local bands that I think are poised to break out and have real mainstream success."

-Tara Dublin, DJ 94.7 Alternative Portland

Careen is a pop-rock band. But don't let this fool you into thinking the songs on Crash Couture will sound like anything else on the charts. The unique styling of singer/guitarist Drew Grow show an eclectic sensibility that will draw in audiences of all musical tastes.

Crash Couture shows songwriting maturity, catchy vocals, unparalleled melodic hooks, and lyrical relevance unheard in much of today's pop music. This album is fun. This album is loud with quiet breaks. Crash Couture is a work of art.

The depth of this album will catch the listeners' ear first thing. From driving drum lines to locked-in bass lines, perfect southern influenced background vocals and lead guitars, and back up north to the soaring keyboard melodies, each part comes together and will be stuck in your head the first time you hear it... in a good way.

Crash Couture has no replacement. This is the ideal album to listen to at a party, in the car, after a breakup, or before a wedding. Says Producer Joe Chicarelli: "They have truly shaped an individual sound for the band. I look forward to hearing how the musical community receives them." The musical community will receive Careen with open arms. If not, the musical machine needs a quart or two of oil.

In a musical era with desperate need for something fresh, Careen has pulled eclectic influences into a new beginning known as Crash Couture.
