Hold a Match for a Gasoline World, Temple's debut full-length, expands on his self-titled four song EP. Recorded with Burke Sampson (guitar), Rob Stillman (keys, horns) and drummer Matt Chamberlain (Jon Brion, Elvis Costello, Fiona Apple), the album effortlessly bridges the dichotomy between linear, driving rock and delicately complex melody. Hold a Match for a Gasoline World, was co-produced by Luke Temple and Troy Tietjen (The Shins, Daniel Johnston, The Fastbacks, Death Cab for Cutie) at Avast! Recording Co. in Seattle, Washington.

With an organic and dedicated fan base already in hand, Hold a Match for a Gasoline World is Temple's first official introduction to the masses. His music is timeless, ripe with a contemplative quality reflective of his desire for creating calm in a chaotic environment, "I strive for there to be restfulness amidst the constant movement."

Key Selling Points:

 Temple has been featured on NPR's "The Beat" as well as Seattle's taste-making radio station, KEXP 90.3 FM and placed #8 on the Top Northwest Releases of 2004 readers' poll of Seattle local new music barometer Three Imaginary Girls.

 National airplay on 100+ college radio stations and extensive press campaign conducted by 2:30 Publicity (The Decemberists, Visqueen, Of Montreal).

 Luke Temple will tour the USA extensively throughout March and May of 2005 with Mill Pond Records label mates, backing band & co-headliners Robert Stillman & The End of The World.

 In store play copies available.

Reviews:

"Luke Temple has got it all. The total package - earnest songs presented in terrifically vibrant fashion, ranging from rocking full band arrangements to tender, intimate solo voice and guitar tunes." - Hybrid Magazine

"I'd expect Luke's forthcoming full-length from Mill Pond, Hold a Match to a Gasoline World, to catapult him to local celebrity as well as national fame." - Three Imaginary Girls

"Luke Temple...has the kind of voice that will stop you in your tracks if you adore the beautiful warbling of the late Jeff Buckley, the high-pitched but solid singing of Paul Simon, or the quiet contemplation of Nick Drake. And it dances around his guitar work perfectly." - Indie Workshop
